

HE GETS LONELY.

HE SPENDS MOST OF HIS LIFE HUDDLED IN A DARK CORNER OF THE GARAGE. COVERED BY PLASTIC AND THE REMNANTS OF LAST SUMMER'S BRISKET. CONSTANTLY OVERSHADOWED BY THE BUILT-IN STAINLESS STEEL NUMBER IN THE BACKYARD. BUT ON GAME DAY, THIS CONCAVE PIECE OF METAL GETS TO SHINE. NO LONGER THE BACKUP GRILL, HE BECOMES THE MAN, FLEXING HIS BRIQUETTES LIKE A CHAMP. HIS SCRAWNY LEGS PROUDLY PLANTED ON THE PARKING LOT PAVEMENT, HE PUMPS OUT BURGERS AND BRATWURST WITH THE EASE OF A WELL-SEASONED VETERAN. HELP HIM MAKE THE MOST OF HIS BIG DAY.
