

Every hole you play fights illiteracy.

For 25 years the BI-LO Charity Classic has supported hundreds of charities, including 44 here in Greenville. Charities that help feed the hungry, support children and fight illiteracy. And now you can help. This year, with tournament play open to the public, you can tee off to help people in need right here in Greenville. Learn more at bi-locharityclassic.com.

June 6 – 8, 2009. Tax-deductible entry fee includes tournament play, meals, gift vouchers and admission to other special events.
