

Former horticulturalist.
Current social butterfly.

Colleen, Seabrook resident since 1997

We've never met anyone else quite like Colleen. She's part artist, part plant buff, part golfer, part neighborhood welcome wagon, and all Seabrooker. Spend the day with her, and you'll soon learn that she's never met a stranger. And that's just one more reason she's one of us. Let Colleen show you around her Seabrook Island.
