

Played football with a famous comedian.

Thinks he's funnier.

Ed, Seabrook resident since 2000

Even when Ed's not cracking a joke, he's still smiling. He's just a happy guy. Even when he loses a match. That's probably because after 31 years of playing football, being a marine and coaching college athletics, living on a private island gives him plenty to smile about.
